THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Today we celebrate Jesus' return to heaven. If we struggle to know how to feel about this event, we take our cue from Jesus' disciples. These disciples are first-hand witnesses to the Ascension, returning afterward to Jerusalem, where "they were continually in the temple praising God." Long-time companions of the Lord, they surely feel the pain of physical separation from Jesus. Yet they praise God continually. They accept God's plan, looking forward to the day when Christ will come again. As our reading from Hebrews affirms, Christ will return to "bring salvation to those who eagerly await him." This Good News is almost too much to take in; the Acts of the Apostles explains that an angel has to wake the disciples from their stupor, reminding them to start the Lord's work. Today's readings are our own angel, sending us forth in joyful hope.

HERE'S WHAT HAPPENED

The Acts of the Apostles and Luke's Gospel use the same word, witnesses, to describe the disciples' role in the new world order. In our culture, a witness can be passive, a mere onlooker, or more active, a formal expert who provides sworn testimony in a trial. The Greek word for witness is martyr. That raises the stakes for the disciples. They watch Jesus float into the air, after which an angel plainly appears to them and promises them that Jesus will come again. They see this happen. Immediately before ascending, Jesus makes a promise to them: "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses . . . to the ends of the earth." Their mission is not a superficial task to confirm the idle rumor that Jesus really floated in mid-air. No, they must be willing to swear—even with their lives—that Jesus is the Christ who accepted an agonizing crucifixion on our behalf, rose from the dead, ascended into heaven, and promised to come again to offer final salvation.

TRUTH MATTERS

Why would anyone be willing to die for that story? Why would anyone accept martyrdom just to make sure no one fiddles with the facts of Jesus' life? Tradition tells us, in fact, that all but one of the Twelve died as martyrs. These witnesses knew that Jesus' story is sacred, unique, and powerful—and that we have to get it right. We have to understand that Jesus is God, and that he actually conquered sin for us by dying on a cross. No other story can give us the kind of hope that Jesus' Good News does. And the story is true. Countless witnesses have died to transmit the saving legacy of Jesus Christ. We have inherited the truth. Every day, we take our place in the story, bringing hope to a needy world.

The Office of Life, Justice and Peace is working to promote fostering and adoption in LA, Ventura, and Santa Barbara Counties.

The statistics for foster youth are shocking:

- ◆ 28,000 children are in foster care in Los Angeles County
- ◆ 21% of foster children in LA are under the age of 2
- ◆ 2/3 of foster children in LA are under the age of 10
- ◆ 7 in 10 girls aging out of foster care will become pregnant before the age of 21
- ◆ 1 in 3 foster youth aging out become homeless
- ◆ 1 in 4 foster youth aging out become incarcerated
- ◆ 70% of trafficked youth come from the foster care system
- ◆ 4 in 10 foster youth will not graduate high school
- ◆ Just 3% of foster youth will graduate college

These young people need the security and support of a loving family to succeed. Foster All, a Christian organization acts as a bridge between interested families and agencies that train foster families. In the past year, parishes throughout the Archdiocese have had over 277 presentations on fostering.

From the 277 parish presentations, 748 families were interested in fostering and from that group 56 are already actively in the foster family system. This number is truly staggering and encouraging. We believe there was such a great response because our parish families have simply not been invited to foster before now.

For more information, contact the Office of Life, Justice and Peace: 213-637-7632 or archla.org/foster
