THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's first reading, God tells the prophet Elijah to prepare Elisha to succeed him. Succeeding Elijah will be no easy task; he has spent his life facing threats from the kings he has confronted about their infidelity to the God of Israel. The psalm illustrates the emotional and spiritual distress that the prophets' steadfast faithfulness to God brought them. Paul's description of the Christian's freedom from the law as opposed to "the desire of the flesh" puts this struggle at the very heart of Christian identity. The reading from Luke's Gospel recounts Jesus' decision to journey toward Jerusalem, where he knows he will meet his earthly fate. Following Jesus—like succeeding Elijah as prophet—will now become more difficult. Unlike his calls to the first disciples, Jesus encounters those who are not ready or are not strong enough to journey with him.

We are called

How do we know when we are being called by God? Sometimes a call is very clear: this is what we need to do. Other times a call may be less obvious, and it may take more time to discern such a call. What is certain is that each of us will be called, at different times and in different ways, according to our personal strengths and weaknesses.

While the prophets Isaiah and Jeremiah were called in dramatic visions, Elisha's call came with a simple but singular event: the prophet Elijah approached him as he was plowing and "threw his cloak over him" (1 Kings 19:19). Elisha immediately understood—this was a sign he was to follow Elijah and inherit his mantle as prophet.

We are familiar with how, at the beginning of his ministry, Jesus called the fishermen to follow him and how they dropped everything to do so. The events in today's Gospel happen much later, after Jesus has determined he is to go to Jerusalem, and—Luke informs the reader—there are already forebodings about his fate. Jesus is well enough known that some people approach him and want to go with him, but they are met with warnings about the difficulties that lie ahead. Others summoned by Jesus want to say good-bye to their families first; Jesus shrugs them off and continues on without them. The urgency of the task ahead demands immediate and total dedication.

How can you tell?

One of the ways the Spirit is constantly breathing new life into the Church is in the practice of spiritual direction. In addition to our personal prayer, spiritual directors can provide support for discerning the promptings of the Spirit in our lives. Benedictines, Dominicans, and Jesuits are known for their work in spiritual direction and in training others as directors. By now the Church is blessed with any number of priests, sisters, and lay people who help others discern and respond with the strength and dedication required to follow Jesus, wherever the journey may take us.

The Elegance of Duke Ellington and Farewell Dinner for Msgr. Hererra

Everyone who attended the St. John Eudes Music Ministry summer concert, "The Elegance of Duke Ellington" and the Farewell Tribute to Msgr. Hererra were treated to a most enjoyable event.

The concert was largely a tribute to Duke Ellington, one of the most important forces in all American music, and who made an indelible contribution to the beauty, joy and sophistication in the art of American Jazz and popular song. The band consisting of Rose Palmer at piano, Robert Feldman on bass, Marco Palmer, drummer and (at times) Dana Howell on saxophone, provided exciting accompaniment for the choir and soloists.

Tap dancer, Emily Hurtado (SJE School alumnus) added a new dimension to the arrangements of "Take the A-Train" and "It Don't Mean a Thing (if it Ain't Got That Swing)."

Narong and the Hospitality Ministry once again performed their magic in serving the guests a delicious dinner.

On behalf of the parish Deacon Sargon Younan expressed our deep gratitude to Monsignor Herrera for his leadership and support during this last year.

Special thanks to Deacon Sargon, all the Parish Staff and Ministry Leaders who worked tirelessly to make this community celebration possible, as well as our heartfelt appreciation for our St. John Eudes Parish Community.

Despedida a Mons. Herrera

Todas las personas que asistieron al concierto de verano "The Elegance of Duke Ellington" y al homenaje de despedida para Mons. Herrera disfrutaron de un evento muy agradable.

El concierto fue un tributo a Duke Ellington, una de las fuerzas más importantes de la música en América y quien hizo una contribución imborrable a la belleza, júbilo y sofisticación en el arte del jazz americano y canción popular. La banda integrada por Rose Palmer en el piano, Robert Feldman en el bajo, Marco Palmer, batería y Dana Howell en el saxofón dieron un acompañamiento emocionante al coro y los solistas.

La bailarina de Tap, Emily Hurtado (exalumna de SJE) agregó una nueva dimensión a los arreglos de "Toma el tren A" y "No significa nada (si no tiene ese swing)". Narong y el Ministerio de Hospitalidad realizaron una vez más su magia al servir a los invitados una deliciosa cena.

En nombre de la parroquia, el Diácono Sargón Younan expresó nuestro profundo agradecimiento a Monseñor Herrera por su liderazgo y apoyo durante este último año.

Un agradecimiento especial a Deacon Sargon, todo el personal de la parroquia y los líderes de los ministerios que trabajaron incansablemente para hacer posible esta celebración, así como nuestro sincero agradecimiento por nuestra comunidad parroquial de St. John Eudes. Did you Know?

Remember who is most important in a suspected abuse situation . . .

It can be difficult to investigate abuse situations involving children, as they may be vulnerable to lies, threats or manipulation by the abuser. It is critical to remember that the victim is the most important in a suspected abuse situation. Keeping the child in focus will help adults who suspect abuse act with compassion and care to keep the child from further pain.
