FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Our God is about relationships. In the first reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that the laws, which are already in their hearts, keep them in right relationship with the God who loves them so much that they always find forgiveness. Centuries later, along comes Jesus, whom Paul describes to the Colossians as “the image of the invisible God,” the very embodiment of this God of love. In his parable about the good Samaritan, Jesus explains how the law of love overrules the letter of the law. Instead of answering the question “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus demonstrates that it is not about who is worthy of being loved, but rather loving as God loves—about being neighbor, about being the good Samaritan. Jesus wants us to his work as images of this God of love by loving all people, even those who seem to be our enemies.

Law and Order

Have you ever listened to someone giving a specific person a dose of reality and realized that you were also intended to “get it”? In today’s Gospel, Jesus is speaking to a know-it-all who seems to be baiting him, trying to see if Jesus has the theological wherewithal to be the great teacher he was said to be, asking about the requirements in the Law to gain eternal life. Jesus turns the tables and asks this lawyer, this expert, how he himself would answer the question. The lawyer states the obvious answer from the Law about loving God and one’s neighbor. But Jesus asks for more: Who is my neighbor? Does the Law answer this question?

In Deuteronomy, Moses spoke to the Israelites about the new Law, the Ten Commandments. At the time of Jesus, those ten “laws” had bloated into more than six hundred, requiring interpretation so that people could be obedient but unencumbered by the inevitable inconsistencies of such a vast set of regulations. Instead of the Law, Jesus answers with one of the most famous stories of all time: the “good” Samaritan. Here is where the plot thickens.

Can you hear me now?

On his way to Jerusalem, to the cross, Jesus and his disciples had recently passed through Samaria and found no welcome there, due to animosity between the two peoples. Jesus’ disciples wanted vengeance. So Jesus tells the story of how two strict adherents to the Law ignored the man who needed help, probably because of a slavish interpretation of the Law. A stranger from Samaria, who was seemingly little more than a heathen, treated the man with kindness and compassion. (Hey, disciples, did you hear that?)

Moses tried to tell the Israelites that the Law was already in their hearts. Jesus wanted the lawyer and the disciples—and us—to realize that the heart of the Law is a matter of our own hearts. That is where we know our neighbor—everyone.

¿Sabia USTED?

Enseña a los niños a estar seguros en el agua este verano . . .

Ahogarse es la segunda razón de muerte de personas entre las edades de 5 y 24 años. Las familias deben hablar con sus hijos sobre hábitos de seguridad a usarse cuando ellos estén cerca de una alberca o en la playa. Los niños jamás deben ir al agua si no saben nadar, y jamás deben nadar solos o sin un salvavidas presente. Para los padres de familia, es muy importante evitar distracciones cuando supervisen niños que estén nadando.

Did you Know?

Go beyond just saying "no" to teach children about polite exceptions . . .

© J.S. Palush Co., Inc.

Rules about politeness seem to be in contradiction to the rules we teach children about avoiding predators and responding to behaviors that make them uncomfortable. It's important to expand on the idea of saying "no" when someone asks them to cross a boundary. Explain that there are situations where being rude is acceptable, if that's what it takes, and help them understand that being polite has its limits.

Solemnity of St. John Eudes

August 18th, 11:00 Mass

Please join us at the 11:00am Mass on Sunday, August 18th, to celebrate the Feast Day of our patron saint, St. John Eudes.

This will be a joyous celebration since we will be presenting service awards and certificates of appreciation to volunteers who have served our parish, school and community with their time, talent and treasure for many years.

All are welcome to a reception in Grill Hall after Mass.
